

Contents

Preface / 9

Introduction

Gillian L. S. Hilton & Elizabeth Achinewhu-Nworgu

Recovering Education: Using the Experiences and Learning Acquired to Build New and Better Education Systems / 10

Part 1: Comparative and International Education & History of Education

Charl Wolhuter

Towards the Recovery of Education: Reaching for 2030 and Comparative and International Education / 23

Hennie Steyn

Empowering Parents to Support their Children to Survive and Thrive in School: A Present-Day Challenge / 29

Nonhlanhla Maseko

Life beyond Foster Care: Transitional Tools to Support Youth with Disabilities into Adulthood / 36

James Michael Brant

The Most Underserved Populations: How Rich and Poor Orphans Rise Together / 43

Marco A. Navarro-Leal & Dilsa Estela Muñoz-Muñoz

New Rurality and Traditional Families. Multigrade Schools in Colombia and Mexico during Pandemics / 49

Martin Boško, Hana Voňková, Ondřej Papajoanu & Angie Moore

A Comparison of Response Styles Between Different Groups of Czech and New Zealand Students Participating in PISA 2018 / 55

Nomthandazo Buthelezi & Nonhlanhla Maseko

Family Support for Learners with Mild Intellectual Disabilities during Transition / 61

Part 2: International Education Issues

Carlo Daniels, Ewelina K Niemczyk & Zacharias L de Beer
Challenges Associated with Implementation of Sustainability-oriented Principles and Practices: Lessons Learnt from South African Universities / 68

Johan Beckmann
The Non-recoverability of an Education System and the Resetting Option: Case South Africa / 75

André du Plessis
What Happened to ‘Educational’ in Educational Management and Leadership? The Rise of Managerialism / 82

Leon Roets, Brianna Kurtz & Karen Biraimah
The Impact of the Racial and Economic Divides on Access to Quality Education in South Africa and the United States / 89

Obed Mfum-Mensah
“Transgressive” Instruction as Cultural Production: Teaching Strategies to Disrupt the “Dirty Gossips” about Sub-Saharan “Africa” / 96

Noziphiwo Cleopatra Kgati & Zacharias L de Beer
Towards Enhancing Open Distance Learning Students’ Roles and Responsibilities: An African Epistemological Perspective / 103

Coenraad Jurgens
Safety in Mechanical Technology Workshops at South African Public Schools / 110

Gergana Sakarski
Evaluation of Homeschoolers’ Soft Skills: Initial Survey Results / 117

Martin Boško, Ondřej Papajoanu, Angie Moore & Hana Voňková
Examining Paradoxical Associations Between Students’ Questionnaire Responses and Their Achievement Across PISA Cycles: The Case of Teacher Support / 124

Ilse Doyer, Wilna L Bean & André du Plessis
A Time-on-Task Analysis of Teaching and Learning Productivity / 131

Tshepo T. Tapala
Professional Development Programmes: Learning Platforms for the Advancement of Departmental Heads and Schools as Organisations / 139

Shantha Naidoo
South African Educators’ Responses to Racial Integration in Public Secondary Schools / 145

Part 3: School Education: Policies, Innovations, Practices & Entrepreneurship

Gillian L. S. Hilton

Teaching a Female Profession: Is That a Problem? / 152

Godsend T. Chimbi & Loyiso C. Jita

Nurturing Learners' Research Skills Through Project-Based Learning: A Capability Approach Traversing Three Countries / 159

René Beyers & André du Plessis

The Application of Professional Discretion by South African Public School Principals / 166

Bonjeer Tamilka

Conducting Experiments in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM) in Remote Learning Environments during the Global COVID-19 Pandemic: Approaches and Policy Implications / 173

Claudio-Rafael Vásquez-Martínez, Francisco Flores-Cuevas, Felipe-Anastacio González-González, Luz-María Zúñiga-Medina, Idalia Castillo-González, Irma-Carolina González-Sánchez, Joaquín Torres-Mata

Pedagogical Trends, Various Approaches / 180

Siphokazi Kwatubana

The Role of Principals as Instructional Leaders in the Implementation of ICT Curriculum in South African Public Schools / 185

Part 4: Higher Education & Teacher Education and Training

Steve Greenfield

The Importance of Being 'Pulled Up Short': Can a Transdisciplinary Approach Help Deliver? / 191

Gordana Stankovska, Dimitar Dimitrovski & Imran Memedi

Psychological Well-Being and Mental Health among University Students / 198

Part 5: Law and Education

Elizabeth Achinewhu-Nworgu & Queen Chioma Nworgu

Examine Important Strategic Roles of Leadership and Management of Teachers' Retention and Impact on Organisational Performance with Reference to an HE Institution in Inner London / 206

Princess Adaeze Chuku-Ashiegbu

Labour Rights of Lecturers in Private Universities in Nigeria / 213

- Elizabeth Achinewhu-Nworgu
Black Lecturers Matter: Exploring the Views of BAME Staff in Education on Organisational Culture and Opportunities for Black Staff in Promotion to Higher Positions / 219
- Marius Smit
Social Media in Schools – A Comparative Legal and Educational Perspective / 226
- Vimbi Petrus Mahlangu
Understanding Principled Leadership Through the Lens of Fraud Diamond Theory / 233
- Chinuru Achinewhu
Law Practice and Education in Nigeria: The Importance of Technology / 240
- Part 6: Research Education & Research Practice
- Ewelina K Niemczyk
Higher Education as a Sustainable Service Provider in a Rapidly Changing World / 247
- JP Rossouw
Rebuilding Higher Education by Combating Researcher Isolation / 254
- Nicholas Sun-Keung Pang
The Strategies of Reforming Higher Education in China under Global Competition / 261
- Zoltán Rónay & Ewelina K Niemczyk
Higher Education as a Change Agent: Exploring Interconnection of Academic Freedom and Sustainable Development / 267
- Jan B Khumalo
School Management Support for Parental Involvement in Education / 273
- Maja Stojanović & Susan M. Yelich Biniecki
Training Adult Education Researchers in a Remote Doctoral Program: Experiences, Reflections, and Suggestions for Moving Forward / 280
- Oliver Tafadzwa Gore & Anesu Sam Ruswa
Non-monetary Poverty: Addressing Issues of Student Deprivation in South African Higher Education / 287
- List of Contributors / 294
- List of BCES Conference Books / 296
- How to Cite the Papers Published in This Volume / 298